Terrain and map: Terrain is covered in coniferous forest of different age and character. Open areas take up around 20% of the terrain. In the middle of the map, there is a large sand quarry that courses cross. Elevation difference on the terrain is 30 meters. Track system consists of areas with dense network of tracks demanding good concentration and connecting areas that allow faster skiing and more large-scale route choice possibilities.

Map drawn by Avo Veermäe. Ski-orienteeing track network planned by Kalle Ojasoo and Nikolai Järveoja. Previous maps: 2006050, 2016066

Maps scales: sprint 1: 5000; middle distance 1:7 500, h = 2,5 m.
